

Michael Robotham

Two-times Gold Dagger winner and twice Edgar finalist, Michael Robotham was born in Australia in November 1960 and grew up in small country towns that had more dogs than people and more flies than dogs. He escaped in 1979 and became a cadet journalist on an afternoon newspaper in Sydney.

For the next fourteen years he worked for newspapers in Australia, Europe, Africa and America. In 1993 he quit journalism to become a ghostwriter, collaborating with politicians, pop stars, psychologists, adventurers and showbusiness personalities to write their autobiographies. His first novel 'THE SUSPECT', a psychological thriller, was chosen by the world's largest consortium of book clubs as only the fifth "International Book of the Month", making it the top recommendation to 28 million book club members in fifteen countries.

Since then, Michael's haunting psychological thrillers have been translated into twenty-five languages.

Michael now lives in Sydney

Michael's website <https://www.michaelrobotham.com/>

Michael chats about the science of lying and the inspiration behind his characters
<https://www.betterreading.com.au/podcast/podcast-michael-robotham-on-the-science-of-lying-tv-adaptions-and-the-inspiration-behind-his-characters/>

Michael talks with Richard Fidler on Conversations (this program is from 2017)
<https://www.abc.net.au/radio/programs/conversations/conversations-michael-robotham/8695746>

Michael chats with Cheryl from The Joys of Binge Reading podcast about his journey as an author and journalist

<https://thejoysofbingereading.com/michael-robotham-international-crime-master/>

